Apples

This task is about identifying and correcting common spelling errors.

The story below has some spelling mistakes. Read the story all the way through and draw a circle around all the mistakes you can find. Write the correct spelling of each mistake in the space at the start of each line. If you cannot find a mistake, put a tick (✔) in the space. The first two lines have been done for you.

✔	I will never forget the day I got caught pinching apples off the picked	neighbour's tree. I had picked the apples quite a few times,
_____	but I had never been caught, untill now. I had climbed our
_____	fence and was picking apples from the tree at the back and
_____	tucking them into my sweatshirt when everythink went wrong.
_____	I heard a truck in the driveway. Our neighbour, Mr Johns, was _____	home early from work. I didn't know what to do. If I jumped
_____	to the ground he would hear me. I froze. What coud I do?
_____	I decided to hide among the leaves of the tree. I watched as
_____	Mr Johns walked arownd the side of the house towards the back
_____	door. I was holding my breath. My luck held as Mr Johns
_____	unlocked his door and began to step inside. Suddenley the
_____	apples began to slide from my sweatshirt. I tryd to grab them
_____	but the movement only made more apples fall.
_____	They hit the ground in a series of thuds. Mr Johns turnd and _____	saw me. He began to swear at me. I jumped down and started
_____	to run but he caught me and dragged me inside. After yelling
_____	at me, he took me home and told my parants. They yelled at me
_____	too! I don't like apples so much anymore, especially the ones
_____	I can see through my bedroom winder.