

Beaks

This task is about matching bird beaks to their type of diet.

Drag the box that shows the way a beak is used across to the bird with that beak.
One food type will be left over.

Image source: (c) J.Fisher, www.photokets.co.nz

Image source: (c) Crown, DOC

Image sources: (c) Crown, DOC

Image source: (c) Crown, DOC

Image source: (c) Crown, DOC

Used to strip plants of foliage (leaves, parts of plant).
Used to eat soft fruit, berries, leaves, and flowers.

Used to search for insects in the leaf litter and soil.
Used to eat hard seeds, berries, leaves, shoots, and small invertebrates.

Used to tear and eat dead animals.
Used to sift food from ponds.
