What's wrong?

This task is about adding words to a text so it makes sense.

The following piece of writing has some spaces where words are missing.

First, read the whole piece of writing through to get an idea of what it is about. Then fill each space with ONE word so that the whole piece of writing makes sense. You are able to change answers as you go.

When you have filled in all the spaces, re-read the text to check that the whole piece of writing makes sense.

	What's Wrong?
	by Nanda Thomas
run outside, I can see why h	rom outside the house. It's my little brother who's screaming, and when I e's screaming so loudly. I don't know what to do. All 1 can see is my legs and his head wedged tightly in the gap 3 the steps Dad h made. I yell for Mum	⁴ she's not here. "Please, Mum," I think, "Please 5 back soon!" I'll just have to listen to the scr	eaming 6 wait till someone comes. Suddenly I see 7 coming the gate. She runs towards	us, calling ⁸ , "What's wrong? What's wrong?" She kneels down
⁹ my brother, hold	ing him firmly. She looks carefully 10 the steps. Then suddenly everything is quiet. My	¹¹ stops screaming. My mother is holding him under ¹² arms and pulling him gently acros	s towards the 13 side of the steps. His head turns around he slides across between th	e steps, until at 15 he is able to free it completely. He 16 out. I look at the steps again	1. Now 17 can see what the problem was. The steps 18 not the same height at each side. T	19 at one side is bigger than the gap 20 the other side. N brother put his head	²¹ the big gap and moved his head along ²² see what was under the house. Then 23 co	uldn't get it out again. Mum is hugging 24 brother, telling him everything is all right. "Don'	25 ever put your head between those steps again," 26 says.
He won't. I know he won't.
