

Trends in assessment: An overview of themes in the literature

Trends in assessment: An overview of themes in the literature

Rosemary Hipkins and Marie Cameron, 2018

This report outlines findings from a literature review of trends in assessment policy and practice, which was commissioned by the Ministry of Education. The primary purpose of the report is to inform the Ministry as it considers updating its position on assessment. The authors use 'assessment capability' as a point of reference.

<https://www.nzcer.org.nz/research/publications/trends-assessment-overvie...>

Published on <https://newzealandcurriculum.tahurangi.education.govt.nz>