

A Guide for Good Teaching Practice: Considering Māori students

A Guide for Good Teaching Practice: Considering Māori students

TE MATA O TE TAU

Academy for Māori Research and Scholarship Office of the Assistant Vice-Chancellor Māori and Pasifika

Prepared by Dr Ina Te Wiata, 2016

This guide about good teaching practice is relevant for all teaching staff at Massey University. It places the onus on teachers to reflect critically on existing teaching practice.

Although written for teaching staff at Massey University this guide is a very useful resource for consideration for any and every teacher.
