

The Te Kotahitanga Effective Teaching Profile

The Te Kotahitanga Effective Teaching Profile

Russell Bishop and Mere Berryman, 2009

Te Kotahitanga is a project that seeks to improve the educational achievement of Māori students in English medium schools. Through interviews with Māori students, their teachers and whānau, the authors learnt about the characteristics of teachers that made a difference. They have drawn these together into the Effective Teaching Profile.

Article: The Te Kotahitanga Effective Teaching Profile [pdf]

Published on <https://newzealandcurriculum.tahurangi.education.govt.nz>