

Ambiguous sentences

This task is about ambiguous sentences.

When an expression or word is ambiguous, it has more than one meaning.

Read the following sentences.

Explain why the sentence is ambiguous and then write a clearer sentence that is not ambiguous.

a) "The track was very rough and he slipped and nearly broke his finger, in several places."

The sentence is ambiguous because:

Improved sentence:

b) "Do not ruin your computer by fiddling with it; let us do it for you."

The sentence is ambiguous because:

Improved sentence:

c) "We have a fridge for storing bread that was made thirty years ago."

The sentence is ambiguous because:

Improved sentence: