

Choose an animal

This task is about writing questions about an animal that you would like to find out about.

Choose any animal you would like to do some research about.

Write the name of your animal:

Write four questions below about the animal you chose that you could find answers to in the library. Begin each question with one of the words below.

You may use the same starting word more than once.

Where Why When What How Who

Write the first question about your animal that you could find answers to in the library.

Write a second question about your animal that you could find answers to in the library.

Write a third question about your animal that you could find answers to in the library.

Write a fourth question about your animal that you could find answers to in the library.