

Making an advertisement

You are going to live in the United States for two years. You want to sell your bike.

Design an advertisement that could go on the school noticeboard. Put your advertisement in the box below. Your advertisement should:

- be eye-catching
- give some information about the bike
- persuade the reader to buy your bike

Design your advertisement in this box.