

Writing a conversation

This task is about writing a conversation using speech marks.

Ahika ran in the door, dropped his bag and yelled, "what's for dinner?"
"Hamburgers," replied Mum. "Please set the table."
"That's not fair," moaned Ahika, "because I did it yesterday."
"Well life isn't always fair," answered Mum.

In the box below write a short conversation that two friends might have at lunchtime. Remember to use all the punctuation needed when someone is speaking, as shown in the example above. Each friend needs to speak at least two times.