Which word is right?

This task is about choosing the right word to make a sentence correct.

Read the story. In some sentences, there will be a list of possible words to choose from. Only one of the words in each list makes sense.

Choose the one word that makes sense in the sentence it is in.

Staying at Koro's House

I stayed at my Nanny and Koro's house on the weekend. Mum said that I was to  $where \mid wear \mid we're$  my best clothes, so I had to take  $off \mid of$  my rugby jersey. Mum drove me to  $there \mid their \mid they're$  house because it was  $two \mid too \mid to$  far to walk. Nanny and Koro have  $to \mid too \mid two$  TVs so I went to watch some cartoons in their bedroom while Mum talked with Nanny in the lounge. Koro was working in the garden. He  $nose \mid knows \mid no's$  heaps about plants. On Saturday night three of my cousins  $were \mid where \mid we're$  staying and we went  $too \mid to \mid two$  the movies. Later we all slept in the same bedroom. It was fun talking in bed with the lights out.

Published on https://newzealandcurriculum.tahurangi.education.govt.nz