

Speech marks

This task is about adding speech marks and commas to a story.

The story below is missing some important punctuation - speech marks and commas. Read the story first and then complete the following tasks:

- . Put speech marks (" ") in all the places they are needed.
- . Put commas (,) in all the places they are needed.

You're walking too fast moaned Kiana.

You will just have to keep up said Sameer or we will be late for school.

My legs are too tired. I need a piggy back said Kiana.

I can't give you a piggy back all the way to school said Sameer because you're too heavy.

Kate sat down on the pavement and said Well I'm not going to school then.

You have to said Sameer.

No I don't. I'm just going to sit here all day said Kiana.

Sameer sighed with frustration and said I'll carry your school bag for you then.

Thanks said Kiana as she handed over her school bag. You're the best!
