

The night the lights went out

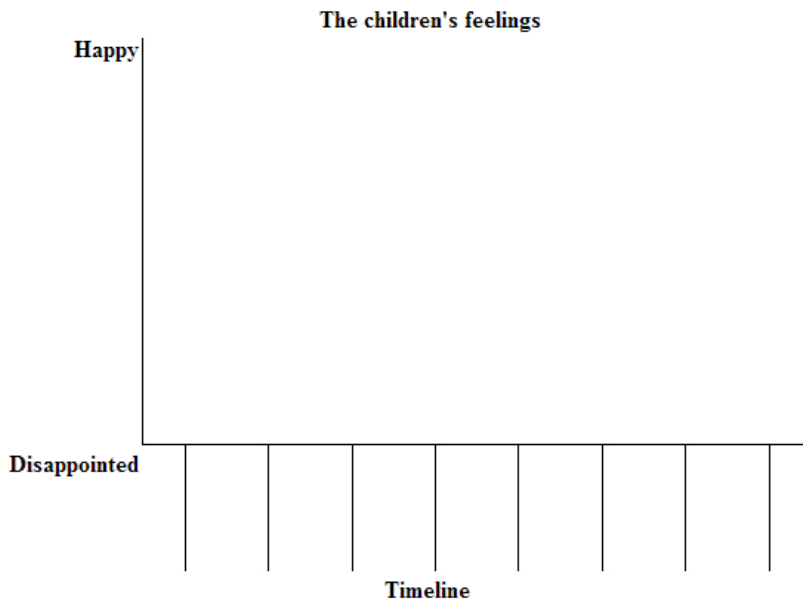

This task is about identifying the changing feelings of the characters in a story, then recording these on a graph.

Read the story, "The Night the Lights Went Out" in Junior Journal 23, then complete the tasks below.

a) During this story Scott and Sarah felt happy at times and disappointed at other times.

Complete the line graph below to show the ups and downs of the children's feelings throughout the story.

Remember to write in the event or activity that caused the feelings.

b) Why did Scott and Sarah turn the lights off at the end of the story?
