

Speech bubbles

This task is about how to show people are speaking in writing.

Read each set of sentences below.

Fill in the empty speech bubbles to show only the words that each person is saying. The first one has been done for you.

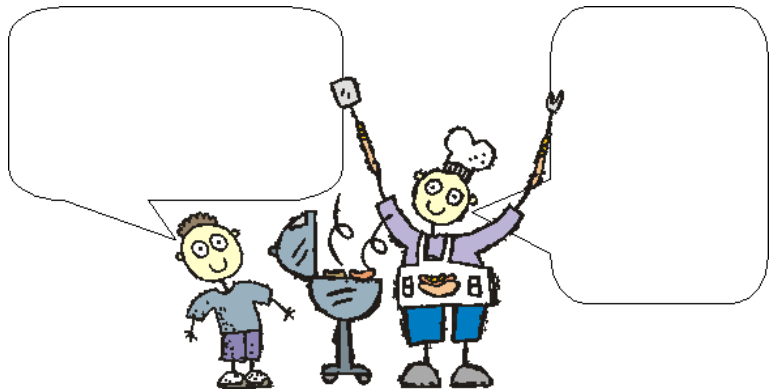

- a) "What are you doing?" asked Rachel.
"I'm making a sand castle," answered Michael.

- b) "I'm scared of dogs," said Helen.
"It's all right," said Peter. "He won't bite you."

- c) Tim licked his lips and asked, "Are the sausages cooked?"
"They will be soon," answered Dad.

- Tim grumbled to himself, "This jersey is far too big!"
"Don't worry," said Mum. "You'll grow into it."
