

Apples

This task is about identifying and correcting common spelling errors.

The story below has some spelling mistakes. Read the story all the way through and draw a circle around all the mistakes you can find. Write the correct spelling of each mistake in the space at the start of each line. If you cannot find a mistake, put a tick (✓) in the space. The first two lines have been done for you.

I will never forget the day I got caught pinching apples off the neighbour's tree. I had picked the apples quite a few times, but I had never been caught, untill now. I had climbed our fence and was picking apples from the tree at the back and tucking them into my sweatshirt when everythink went wrong.
I heard a truck in the driveway. Our neighbour, Mr Johns, was home early from work. I didn't know what to do. If I jumped to the ground he would hear me. I froze. What coud I do?
I decided to hide among the leaves of the tree. I watched as Mr Johns walked around the side of the house towards the back door. I was holding my breath. My luck held as Mr Johns unlocked his door and began to step inside. Suddenley the apples began to slide from my sweatshirt. I tryd to grab them but the movement only made more apples fall.
They hit the ground in a series of thuds. Mr Johns turnd
saw me. He began to swear at me. I jumped down and started to run but he caught me and dragged me inside. After yelling at me, he took me home and told my parants. They yelled at me too! I don't like apples so much anymore, especially the ones
I can see through my bedroom winder.
