

Using keywords

This task is about choosing the best keywords to help you find information and answer questions.

When you research a topic you can use keywords to help you find the information you need.

a) Tick the three words or phrases most likely to help you find information and answer each of the following questions. An example has been done for you.

Question: Why do stars light up?

Keywords:

<input checked="" type="radio"/> space	<input type="radio"/> gas	<input type="radio"/> planets
<input type="radio"/> light	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Milky Way	<input checked="" type="radio"/> stars

Question: What is being done to stop the Black Robin from becoming extinct?

Keywords:

<input type="radio"/> New Zealand wildlife	<input type="radio"/> extinct	<input type="radio"/> conservation
<input type="radio"/> native	<input type="radio"/> New Zealand birds	<input type="radio"/> newspaper

Question: How far is it between the Earth and Saturn?

Keywords:

<input type="radio"/> solar system	<input type="radio"/> planets	<input type="radio"/> Earth
<input type="radio"/> size	<input type="radio"/> space shuttle	<input type="radio"/> distance

b) Read the following questions. Write three words or phrases most likely to help you find information and answer each question. The first one has been done for you.

Question: How can the sun be used to light a house?

Keywords: sun energy solar power

i) How is diet important to your health?

Keywords:

ii) How does blood move around our bodies?

Keywords: