

Octopuses

This task is about adding words to a text so that it makes sense.

The following piece of writing has some spaces where words are missing.

First, read the whole piece of writing through to get an idea of what it is about. Then fill each space with ONE word so that the whole piece of writing makes sense. You are able to change answers as you go.

When you have filled in all the spaces, re-read the text to check that the whole piece of writing makes sense.

Octopuses

No beast on land or sea has ever been so misrepresented and feared as the octopus. But the truth is that the ¹ is afraid of anything larger than ². For centuries it has been preyed ³ by humans, whales, and large eels, ⁴ the ferocious moray eel.

Of the ⁵ than one hundred varieties of octopus, ⁶ don't grow larger than one metre ⁷. Some are so tiny that, full-grown, ⁸ could fit on your little fingernail.

⁹ the Mediterranean, where octopuses are common, few grow tentacles longer than two

¹⁰. Huge specimens are to be found ¹¹ in the depths of the Pacific

¹². Tentacles discovered in a sperm whale's ¹³ were reported as being fifteen metres

¹⁴ – which would make the entire creature ¹⁵ than thirty metres across!

One story ¹⁶ the octopus deals with the speed ¹⁷ which it shoots through the water. ¹⁸ reality, though they can move rapidly ¹⁹ stress, they are usually anything but ²⁰. The octopus's tentacles, however, can be ²¹ swift as a whiplash in snaring ²² and are surprisingly strong. In captivity, ²³ have been known to pull out ²⁴ from the bottom of their tank, ²⁵ all the water to drain out.
