

Emphasis

This task is about different ways to emphasise text.

a) Writers can use different ways to emphasise a word or an idea, such as:
repetition | rhetorical question | exclamation | contrast | climax Complete the table below by choosing a matching term from the list.

i)	repetition / rhetorical question / exclamation / contrast / climax	Do you want us all to get killed?
ii)	repetition / rhetorical question / exclamation / contrast / climax	It was the best of times; it was the worst of times.
iii)	repetition / rhetorical question / exclamation / contrast / climax	We must reject this idea now!
iv)	repetition / rhetorical question / exclamation / contrast / climax	"Luke, fire the laser canon, fire it, fire it now."
v)	repetition / rhetorical question / exclamation / contrast / climax	First the individuals, then the class, then the whole of year 10 will suffer.
