

Thesaurus

This task is about information that a thesaurus provides.

What is a thesaurus?

a) _____

Use the parts of the thesaurus numbered 1-7, to label the example below.

b) Write the number of the correct description in the appropriate box. One description will be left over.

1. part of speech
2. related word - related in meaning to the key word
3. indication of origin
4. illustrative sentence
5. what the word means
6. keyword
7. antonym (opposite)

<input type="checkbox"/>	Crooked	Adjective	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	curved or not straight	The crooked man had a crooked stick.	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	bent	Bent means curved or made into an angled shape. There was a bent spoke in the wheel of my bike.	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	warped	Warped means bent out of its usual shape. It is most often used about something straight and flat like timber. The builder could not use the warped plank of wood.
<input type="checkbox"/>	dishonest/honest	Honest, truthful, honourable, sincere.

Give one occasion in which a thesaurus could be very helpful.

c) _____