

Making puns

This task is about showing your understanding of puns.

Read the poem "Don't be Wet" School Journal, Part 3, No. 3 1994.

The poem "Don't Be Wet" uses many puns. A pun is the humorous use of a word that has different meanings.

Write the two different meanings for pool as used in the poem.

Meaning One:

Meaning Two:

Write the two different meanings for school as used in the poem.

Meaning One:

Meaning Two:

Write the two different meanings for scales as used in the poem.

Meaning One:

Meaning Two:

b) Some words in the poem have two different ways of being spelt.

Write in another way of spelling tails and give its meaning. Refer back to the poem for clues.

Second spelling:

Meaning:

Write in another way of spelling whale and give its meaning. Refer back to the poem for clues.

Second spelling:

Meaning:

Write in another way of spelling reel and give its meaning. Refer back to the poem for clues.

Second spelling:

Meaning:

