

Daisy Data

This task is about knowing which information is important so you get the main idea of a text.

Read "Daisy Data" by Margaret Cahill, Junior Journal 27, pages 15 to 19.

Choose the three pieces of information below that are most important to this text.

Daisies grow in lots of different places.

The mountain daisy is a native plant.

Daisies belong to the Compositae family.

Daisies used to be called 'day's eye'.

There are lots of different types of daisies.

Daisies can be useful in lots of ways.

What is the main idea of this text?

Daisies are plants.

There are lots of different daisies and some live in New Zealand.

There are lots of different daisies and they can be used for all sorts of things.

Published on <https://newzealandcurriculum.tahurangi.education.govt.nz>