

Judging a speech

This task is about structure, voice, body language, and rapport in the delivery of a speech. Imagine that you have been given the task of judging a junior speech competition. The winner will be awarded a public speaking trophy.

Complete the following chart by giving two qualities you would look for in each category when judging the speech competition.

Be careful not to repeat ideas.

Two qualities for Content have been done for you.

Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The speaker has some clear ideas on the topic.• There is evidence of thought and research.
Structure	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• <input type="text"/>• <input type="text"/>
Delivery - Voice	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• <input type="text"/>• <input type="text"/>
Delivery - Body language	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• <input type="text"/>• <input type="text"/>
Rapport with audience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• <input type="text"/>• <input type="text"/>

Published on Assessment Resource Banks (<https://arbs.nzcer.org.nz>)