

Debating terms

This task is about matching debating terms with their meanings.

Here is a list of debating terms.

Select the term that matches each of the debating concepts and ideas below.

The first one has been done for you.

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Affirmative• Adjudicator• Point of order	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Negative• Peroration• Refute• Interjection	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Rebuttal• Case split• Audience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Chairperson• Moot or proposition• Leader's reply
--	---	--	--

a) The last speech made by the leaders of each team.

It usually gives a summary of the debate and concludes strongly in favour of their case.

Leader's reply ▾

b) A claim that the proper debating procedures have not been used.

*Affirmative | Adjudicator | Point of order | Negative | Peroration | Refute | Interjection | Rebuttal
| Case split | Audience | Chairperson | Moot or proposition | Leader's reply*

c) The topic of the debate,

e.g., "That there are many advantages of school uniforms."

*Affirmative | Adjudicator | Point of order | Negative | Peroration | Refute | Interjection | Rebuttal
| Case split | Audience | Chairperson | Moot or proposition | Leader's reply*

d) An attack on the opposition's argument.

*Affirmative | Adjudicator | Point of order | Negative | Peroration | Refute | Interjection | Rebuttal
| Case split | Audience | Chairperson | Moot or proposition | Leader's reply*

e) The person who judges the debate.

*Affirmative | Adjudicator | Point of order | Negative | Peroration | Refute | Interjection | Rebuttal
| Case split | Audience | Chairperson | Moot or proposition | Leader's reply*

f) The person who introduces the speakers, handles interjections, and points of order.

*Affirmative | Adjudicator | Point of order | Negative | Peroration | Refute | Interjection | Rebuttal
| Case split | Audience | Chairperson | Moot or proposition | Leader's reply*

g) When the opposing team interrupts a speaker and comments on what is being said.

*Affirmative/ Adjudicator/ Point of order/ Negative/ Peroration/ Refute/ Interjection/ Rebuttal
/ Case split/ Audience/ Chairperson/ Moot or proposition/ Leader's reply*

Published on <https://newzealandcurriculum.tahurangi.education.govt.nz>