

Proverb speech II

This task is about preparing and giving a speech based on a proverb.

- You will need to explain the proverb and help the class see how they could apply its message to their lives.
- Use one of the proverbs in the box.
- Write the main points of your speech on a cue card.

Proverbs

Proverbs are like butterflies: some are caught and others fly away.

- Don't keep all your eggs in one basket.
- An apple a day keeps the doctor away.
- First come first served.
- Absence makes the heart grow fonder.
- The person who makes no mistakes does not usually make anything.
- A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.
- A drowning person will catch at a straw.
- A friend in need is a friend indeed.
- A rolling stone gathers no moss.
- All that glitters is not gold.
- Every cloud has a silver lining.
- Half a loaf is better than none.
- If the cap fits, wear it.
- It is easy to be wise after the event.
- Strike while the iron is hot.
- Don't count your chickens before they are hatched.
- Don't burn the candle at both ends.
- Too many cooks spoil the broth.
- You cannot have your cake and eat it.
- You can take a horse to the water but you can't make it drink.
