Prepare an oral book review for your class or a group, promoting a book that you have read recently.

Your review should include:

- the title and author of the book
- a brief overview of what happens in the book
- the genre [type] of book
- the features of the book that made it enjoyable to read
- a reading of a short passage to introduce your audience to the book, i.e., some excellent descriptive writing, a dramatic moment, or a section that you found memorable
- where you can get the book from.

You should be prepared to take questions at the end of the speech.
