

Mouse

This task is about listening and recalling information.

Listen to the story about an unusual mouse, then answer the questions.

a) Mouse-with-the-Longest-Tail played by himself because he was not allowed to play with the others.

liked to play with his tail all the time.

did not like the other mice.

was the best mouse.

b) The other mice thought Mouse-with-the-Longest-Tail was cruel.

a show-off.

c) Why did Mouse-with-the-Longest-Tail bite the tail he saw among the rocks?

He was feeling hungry.

The tail kept moving away.

He wanted his tail to be the longest.

The other mouse had nipped him.

d) Why couldn't Mouse-with-the-Longest-Tail find the other mouse that was nipping him?

It was hiding behind the big rocks.

It ran away when he bit it.

The other mice were playing a trick on him.

There was no other mouse.

e) How did Mouse-with-the-Longest-Tail probably feel just before the other mice asked him to join their games?

- Pleased, because he could now play mouse games better.
- Angry, because he had not been able to catch the other mouse.
- Sad, because he now had a very short tail.
- Proud, because of his new tail.
- Tired, because he had been running about so much.

f) Mouse-with-the-Longest-Tail was allowed to join in mouse games at the end of the story because

- he had shown the other mice he was the best mouse.
- the other mice would not fall over his tail any more.
- the other mice thought that he had paid for being boastful.
- he had said that he was sorry.
