

Discrete or continuous II

---

Data are either discrete or continuous.
Finish each of the sentences below.

a) An example of discrete data is how many words there are in each sentence of a story.
This is discrete data because

---

---

---

---

b) An example of continuous data is the amount of fluid that some students drink at lunchtime.
This is continuous data because

---

---

---

---