

Numbers at an art show

This task is about adding and subtracting large numbers.

378,696 people attended an art show during the month of May. Of these people 198,708 were children. 278,968 adults and 179,996 children attended during June.

- a) How many adults attended in May?
- b) How many people altogether attended in June? .
- c) If half of the 179,996 children who attended in June were boys, how many girls were there?
- d) The total number of people who attended the exhibition during May and June was ...
.
- e) The total number of children who attended during May and June was

Published on <https://newzealandcurriculum.tahurangi.education.govt.nz>