

Use the index!

This task is about knowing how to use an index.

Read the index page for 'Moa' and answer the questions below.

INDEX
blunt-billed forms .....	9, 23
cassowary .....	6, 17
caves .....	20
chick(s) .....	15, 16
climate .....	14
coastal moa .....	8, 12, 23
crested moa .....	22
Dinornis moa .....	8, 21
dinosaurs .....	6
eastern moa .....	12, 23
eggs .....	16
Erneid moa .....	9, 22
emu .....	6, 8, 14, 17
Eyles' harrier .....	15, 18
feathers .....	7, 9, 11
giant moa .....	8, 12, 13, 21
gizzards .....	12
gizzard stones .....	13
Gondwana .....	6
Haast's eagle .....	15, 18
heavy-footed moa .....	22
incubating .....	17
kiwi .....	6, 7, 17
large bush moa .....	21
little bush moa .....	22
Maori .....	18
Mappin's moa .....	23
middens .....	19
moa hunting .....	19
nests .....	16
ostrich(es) .....	6, 8, 14, 17
palaeontologists .....	4
predator(s) .....	7, 15, 16, 18
prehistoric .....	4, 20
ratites .....	6, 7
rhea .....	6, 17
scrapes .....	16
sharp-billed forms .....	9, 22
skeletons .....	13, 20
skull .....	11
slender moa .....	21
stout-legged moa .....	12, 23
upland moa .....	11, 22
vegetation .....	14
wing bones .....	7

a) On what two pages would you find information about skeletons?

b) On what pages would you find information about ostriches?

c) Where in a book would you find an index?

d) How are the words in an index organised?

e) What is an index used for?