Matching shapes

This task is about recognising the same 3-D shape drawn from different views.

Draw a line from each shape on the left to the shape on the right which is the same.
The shape may have been turned upside down or sideways.
The first shape has been done. There will be two shapes on the right side you will not use.