

Jack's cows

This task is about reading maths information from a comic strip.

Questions

- a) What is the farmer asking you to do?
- b) What information does he give you to work this out?
- c) What information does he give you that you don't need for working out the answer?

The farmer wants to know how many cows there will be in the yard.

- d) How would you work out the answer?
- e) Now try to work out the answer. You can use a pencil, calculator, or a piece of paper.
- f) What is the answer?