

Civil emergency

Students interpret changes to the landscape from a diagram of a geological event.

The diagram represents an area in which a civil emergency has been declared as a result of a geological event.

Explain what has occurred to form this landscape (note the arrows):

Identify six hazards or problems that could occur as a result of this geological event:

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.