

Watching ice melt

This task is about observations and asking questions.

How to do this task

1. Place an ice cube on a paper towel and watch it melt.
2. Talk about what is happening to the ice cube with your partner.
3. Write down what you saw, and some questions about what you saw.

What we saw

Questions about what we saw

Published on <https://newzealandcurriculum.tahurangi.education.govt.nz>