

Temporary or permanent?

This task is about temporary and permanent changes.

For each sentence select the the two words from the drop down menu that will make it correct.

a) Making hokey pokey from baking soda, golden syrup, and sugar is a permanent/ temporary change because you can/ can't get the baking soda, golden syrup, and sugar back.

b) Mixing salt into a glass of water is a permanent/ temporary change because you can/ can't get the salt back.
