

Healthy plants II

This task is about deciding which data to collect to see if a plant is healthy.

Ally and Jack each grew a tomato plant. They wanted to see who could grow the healthier plant. After three weeks they drew pictures of their plants.

Ally's plant

Jack's plant

Name _____

a) What things could be measured or counted from the pictures of Ally's and Jack's tomato plants?

Give as many different things that you can.

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

---- Cut along this line and give the top part to your teacher ----

Name _____

Use the list which your teacher shows you to answer the next question.

b) Which things on the list would be most useful to show which plant is healthier?

