

Porcupine fish

This task is about features of a fish.

Side view

When a porcupine fish is swimming normally its spines lie flat along its body.

Front view

A porcupine fish can inflate its body.
The fish now looks 2-3 times its normal size.

The porcupine fish swallows water quickly and inflates itself when danger approaches.
Give two ways this would help protect the fish.

1.

2.

Published on Assessment Resource Banks (<https://arbs.nzcer.org.nz>)