

Insects and mammals

This task is about classification of insects and mammals.

- a) Beetles, wasps and butterflies are all examples of insects.
All insects have ...

- three parts to the body and eight legs.
- two parts to the body and six legs.
- three parts to the body and six legs.
- two parts to the body and eight legs.

- b) Horses, dogs, and kangaroos are all mammals.
What features do all mammals have in common?

- Fur and lay eggs
- Fur, feed young milk, and have warm blood
- Warm blood, feed young milk, and lay eggs
- Fur, cold blood, and feed young milk

Published on <https://newzealandcurriculum.tahurangi.education.govt.nz>