

Learners with special education needs

Learners with special education needs

Guidelines for supporting learning for students with special needs through the Assessment Resource Banks

This guideline was developed from the Assessment Resources for Classroom Teachers and Students (ARCTS) Special Learning Needs discussion group, and relates to the development of appropriate assessment tasks.

Principle 1:

Assessment tasks should support students with special educational learning needs by offering multiple ways of accessing content, and multiple ways of expressing ideas.

Further information

Supporting students with special education needs (education.govt.nz)

Inclusive education guides for schools

Success for all (Ministry of Education website)

Special education (education.govt.nz)

Special education needs support for Parents (education.govt.nz)

Published on Assessment Resource Banks (<https://arbs.nzcer.org.nz>)