

What you can really see

Cut these sentences out

This bird has feathers

This bird can fly

This bird has a beak

This bird is singing

This bird is black

This bird eats worms

What you can really see

To Do: Put the sentences that are about what you can see and what you can't see from the photograph into the columns below.

I can see this from the photograph

I can't see this from the photograph

What you can really see

Cut these sentences out

This cow makes milk

This cow has an udder

This cow
eats grass

This cow has 4 legs

This cow is tired

This cow has a tail

What you can really see

To Do: Put the sentences that are about what you can see and what you can't see from the photograph into the columns below.

I can see this from the photograph

I can't see this from the photograph

What you can really see

Cut these sentences out

This bumblebee
has legs

This bumblebee
has wings

This bumblebee
makes honey

This bumblebee is old

This bumblebee
has a furry body

This bumblebee
can fly

What you can really see

To Do: Put the sentences that are about what you can see and what you can't see from the photograph into the columns below.

I can see this from the photograph

I can't see this from the photograph